“That’s how you open up the Apollo baby,
That’s how you open it up!”

Mo’nique - “Showtime at the Apollo”

“YOU. WILL. NOT. STOP. DANCING!”

JONANNA WIDNER - Dallas Observer

“The Inner City All-Stars play highly energetic music that’s fun to listen to and requires crowd participation. The All-Stars’ show is not a spectator sport; you become part of the action. The sound is a mixture of hip-hop, soul, and call and response (D.C. Go-Go) and a whole lot of big BRASS, JAZZ AND FUNK!” inner city all-stars

The best part about living in the '00s is the different genres of music that smash like atoms, creating a brilliant flash of energy. Such is the genesis of the Inner City All Stars, who slam together old-school funk, New Orleans jazz, rap from back in the day and blaxploitation wah-wah rock into one big booty-shakin' jam.

Formed by band leader, Calvin Sexton, the Inner City All-Stars mission is to entertain, educate and energize new life into the jazz experience, fusing eclectic music and a fresh interpretation of the traditional brass band.
